

How to add a Funeral Notices website link

Thinking of adding a funeral notices website link to your own site?

This guide will help you understand the benefits of adding a funeral notices website link and the technical information to make this simple change.

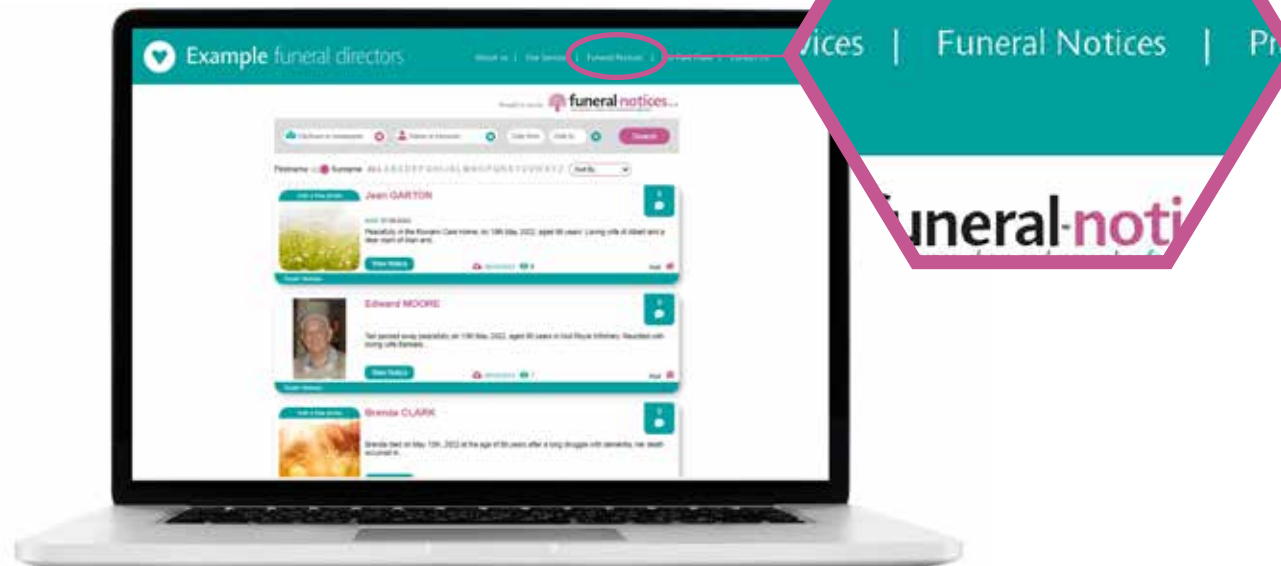

Funeral notices website link explained

A simple solution to allow you to display notices and offer donations directly from your website in just one click.

The link sits behind a button on the navigation bar of your homepage, linking to a bespoke branded landing page on funeral-notices.co.uk.

Preferred name for your new notices webpage:

- Funeral Notices
- Funeral Notices & Donations
- Donations & Notices
- Tributes & Donations

Technical information

Simple installation process explained

- 1 Request your custom website link from your account manager, or email fdteam@funeral-notices.co.uk
- 2 Add a new option on your website's navigation menu, using the website link provided. This could be a button, text link or image, depending on how your website is set up.

And that's it, you can now link all your new and historic notices on your website. Discuss with your account manager how to help your families make the most of your website.

If you are adding the funeral notices website link yourself and need any further advice, don't hesitate to ask as we have a technical team on hand to offer you any advice you might need.
